WEEKLY ROSARY FOR PEACE & HEALING

Join us every Friday, immediately following the 8:30 A.M. Mass.

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

I. Kristin Leary and Philip Flor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Jesus Christ is King! He is the victor over sin and death, He is the way, the truth, and the life, He is truly the universal king. Today, on this great solemnity, we are reminded that He must have sovereignty in our Church, in our hearts, in our minds, and in our daily living.

In spite of this triumphant language which we employ today, the Gospel we read at Mass is hardly one of triumph. Rather, we see Jesus crucified, mocked, reviled – the very picture of powerlessness. As we prepare to begin Advent next week, our thoughts turn to another moment of the life of our Lord in which we see Him powerless, fragile, and weak. Jesus, born in the cave of Bethlehem, is a poor, vulnerable figure. Jesus, crucified on Calvary, is a poor, vulnerable figure. And so this solemnity we celebrate reminds us that true power does not come from office, wealth, or influence. Rather, true power comes from the merciful heart of our Savior.

The logic of God is confounding on this subject. Why does that tiny baby in Bethlehem command such awe? Why does this crucified victim attract us so powerfully? Theologians, poets, artists, and Christians of all stripes have tried to answer these questions for centuries, and for all that has been and can be said, we find ourselves, finally, confronted with one answer: the divine power at work in the person of Jesus Christ is more than any earthly good or power can resist, and the message proclaimed from Bethlehem to Calvary and beyond resonates with a truth so profound that it cannot be overcome by any earthly logic. We find ourselves face to face with this simple, profound truth: Jesus Christ is King.

Our liturgical year draws to an close now, and we prepare for a new beginning in the season of Advent. It is a time for us to prepare to welcome the one who is our true King, and to walk with Him on the way – to Calvary, to the tomb, to the Resurrection, and one day, to our heavenly home in His Father's Kingdom.

Peace,

Fr. Sam

GOSPEL MEDITATION- FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING -A

Sunday's gospel exhorts us respond generously to the needs of those around us. Those who believe in God hear Jesus' testimony as from God. If we hear Jesus' voice, we must wrestle honestly with his message for our time and one helpful, contemporary resource in our search for truth today is the rich tradition of Catholic social justice teaching. Catholic social teaching insists on our responsibilities to one another, protects the dignity and rights of workers, puts the needs of the poor first, urge global peace and development as well as care for creation. ULTIMATE THANKSGIVING – POPE FRANCIS

Jesus' gesture at the Last Supper is the ultimate thanksgiving to the Father for his love, for his mercy. "Thanksgiving," in Greek, is expressed as "eucharist." And that is why the Sacrament is called the Eucharist: it is the supreme thanksgiving to the Father, who so loved us that he gave us his Son out of love. This is why the term Eucharist includes the whole of that act, which is the act of God and man together, the act of Jesus Christ, true God and true Man. (General Audience, February 5, 2014)

JOIN IN PRAYING the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary for Persecuted Christians from your home/car/office the first Tues. of every month (Dec. 6) at 7 pm with a conference phone number. How? Before 7 pm, call 877.216.5269 type in the pin number 96869.

GIVING TREE: SETUP ON NOVEMBER 21!

The St Pius Advent Giving Tree goes up this week, and once again this year we are collecting gifts for those less fortunate. Please take some tags from the tree and purchase those items. We will be donating to 11 area agencies who depend on our generosity to help keep their clients warm, fed and hopeful. We are on a short time frame this year. All wrapped gifts will be due back under the tree by the weekend of December 10-11. It is very important that the original tag be attached to your package. Each agency is represented by a different color and this is how we know where to send that gift.

The St Pius Parishioners are always wonderfully generous, and for this we are grateful!

One Life, One Rose
Our Lady of Guadalupe Silver Rose

This Knights of Columbus program is both a Church and Pro-Life devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe, moving daily like an Olympic Torch. It is the 56th year of the program which began in 1960 as a project of the Columbian Squires of North America to honor the Blessed Virgin. This Culture of Life devotion began as a small project of Squires Circles from Canada to Mexico; but is now hosted by councils and Fourth Degree color corps, and Columbiettes in every US and most Canadian jurisdictions.

We are blessed and honored to display the Silver Rose on our Mary, Mother of God Chapel Altar during the 8:30 a.m. Mass this Wednesday, November 23, 2016. Fr. Sam as the celebrant of the Wednesday daily Mass will offer a reflection on the significance of the Silver Rose and will share what a blessing it is for our Faith Community.

Six Silver Roses began cross country trips in April and May around the feast day of St. Gianna Beretta Molla, patroness of Pro-Life. Four Silver Roses will move from Canada through the United States to converge in Texas as a single bouquet fan before finishing the journey to the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico for her feast day Dec. 12. A fifth Silver Rose will end in the Basilica in Washington DC from 11/20 - 12/12. Connecticut is the last jurisdiction in New England to celebrate the final destination at the crypt of Venerable Fr. Michael J. McGivney at the Founder's Church, St. Mary in New Haven. The Columbian magazine described the full 2014 program in the Feb. 2015 issue including the presentation of the seventh Silver Rose to the His Holiness Pope Francis. He placed it on the altar to Our Lady of Guadalupe in St. Peter's Basilica, Rome, Italy.

After traveling only through New England states and New York, the sixth rose was transferred from the State of Rhode Island to Connecticut on Saturday, November 12 starting at 3:00 p.m., hosted by District 36, Council 270 in Moosup. The final Connecticut Silver Rose devotion on Our Lady of Guadalupe's feast day, Monday December 12 will be held at 7:00 p.m. in St. Mary's Church, New Haven.

The Book of Connecticut intentions will be placed at the crypt of Knights of Columbus Founder, Venerable Fr. Michael J. McGivney.
