Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The parable of the talents Jesus tells in the Gospel today is rich in meaning, no pun intended. "Talent" in this case, refers to a sum of money, either calculated by wages earned or by weight. A talent of silver, for example, would be about 75 pounds worth of silver, and would, for Jesus' audience, represent many years of wages earned, perhaps even a lifetime of earnings. I am no expert in the dollar-values of precious metals, but what I can find online suggests that 75 pounds of silver is worth about $20,00 - $25,000 today. What we should understand from all this is that the man who entrusts talents to his servants is giving them a very substantial amount of money, and that giving this money to his servants represents a tremendous act of trust.

And so the master gives one servant five talents, who uses it to earn five more, bringing the total amount of wealth entrusted to him into the $250,000 range by today's dollar amount. In Jesus' day, this would mean the lifetime earnings of several people put together. The servant returns it all to his master. He has taken this great amount, doubled it, and now gives it back without a second thought. So also the second servant, having received two talents and earned two more, returns them to his master. Even the servant who does nothing with the talent entrusted to him returns it without hesitation.

With Thanksgiving Day fast approaching, this ease of surrender can be instructive for us. The first two servants, who have clearly understood the assignment and been faithful in their efforts do not count the fruit of their labor as something to be jealously guarded. Rather, they understand that they were given something freely. Having cooperated with that gift, they return it, along with its developments, to the master. On Thanksgiving Day we gather to give thanks to God, not simply for the things we have received, but for the things we have received, worked on, developed, the ways in which we have been part of the process. Our thanksgiving for the blessings received is intensified when we have participated in the development of those gifts. What God gives to us is meant to be used, expanded, grown. We don't take seeds and put them away in hiding, rather we plant them so that they can grow. The servant who hid his talent away did the right thing by returning it, but the very fact that he had not used it at all demonstrates his lack of gratitude, his failure to appreciate the tremendous gift that was given to him.

In the end, this Gospel is not about financial gain or cleverness in business transactions. Rather, it is about the ways that God entrusts gifts, talents (in the modern sense of the word), and blessings to us. These are given for our good, and for the greater glory of God. What does it take to follow the example of the servants who bring those blessings back to the master, along with the fruit of their own labors and efforts? How beautiful it would be to return thanks to God, and come back to the Lord not only with the blessing as it was when we started, but with even more added, with that blessing no longer in seed form. How powerful to be so ready to surrender everything into God's hands that we count, not on our own understanding or skill, but entirely on the great providence of God's loving wisdom.

Peace,

Fr. Sam

2023-2024 ST. PIUS X ANNUAL APPEAL DONATION REMINDER

November 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

By now you should have received my letter below in the mail. This copy is a reminder so you may consider donating to the 2023-2024 St. Pius X Annual Appeal if you have not already done so.

2022-2023 Annual Appeal Results:

- Goal: $200,000 Actual: $205,282
- Number of Gifts Received: 312 out of 2300 registered households
- Percent Participation: only 13.5% of our parish donated
- Donations Directly Funded: a) Necessary upgrades to our 60-year-old School: new windows in the 1st floor Classrooms/Offices, new LED lighting and ceiling in the Gym, and plumbing upgrades to 16+ toilets. b) Donations designated to offset the deficit from our We Stand with Christ bank loan went directly to pay down principal.

2023-2024 Annual Appeal Needs:

- Goal: $250,000
- Donations will Directly Fund: Critical repairs still outstanding at our 60-year-old School, used daily by our parish families, for religious education, and rented out as a source of income:
 - New windows in the 2nd floor Classrooms and Gym.
 - Gym Floor replacement and asbestos abatement.
 - Plumbing upgrades to 20 sinks in the bathrooms.
 - Heating system upgrades including new working valves and thermostats in entire building.
 - Carpeting throughout the building needs to be replaced and asbestos abated.

The reality of what it costs to operate/maintain our beautiful but aging 13-acre campus with multiple buildings in Fairfield is significant and on the rise. In addition, our School is still in desperate need of the above repairs. And although we currently have 2,480 registered households, only 25% or 640 contribute regularly to our weekend offertory, and only 13.5% or 312 participated in last year's annual appeal.

With this in mind, I humbly ask everyone to prayerfully consider the following this year:

- Donate (any amount!) so you can participate in our 2023-2024 Annual Appeal (Goal: $250,000)
- Consider increasing your weekly donation by the price of a cup of coffee.
- Send your gift in by December 31. This also allows you to claim your donation on your taxes.

If everyone participates, no matter the amount, it will make a real difference.

With gratitude and my sincere thanks,
