Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"It's worth everything, Sam." I will never forget hearing these words from a priest friend on his ordination day. When a man is ordained to the priesthood, it is customary to ask him for his first priestly blessing. In fact, there is a special indulgence attached to receiving a blessing from a priest in the first year after his ordination! So after an ordination, you will see people lined up waiting for their chance to receive these special blessings. As I knelt before my friend, I was still in seminary, a few years away from my own ordination day. He was so excited and joyful that at the conclusion of the blessing he almost lifted me off the ground to share those encouraging words. To be a priest, even for the hour or so that he had been a priest, was and is, truly, worth everything.

This memory comes to mind as I read this Sunday's Gospel, for our Lord is making clear the abundant gift that is the kingdom of heaven. The image of the treasure in the field and the pearl of great price are strong images that ought to give us pause. Note that our Lord describes someone selling all they have just to buy the field or the pearl. If we break this hyperbole open, we might scratch our heads at first. If I sell everything I have just to buy a pearl, where will I put the pearl? This is exactly the kind of head-scratching Jesus wants us to engage in, so that we can understand more profoundly what it means to be disciples, what it means to choose God in all things. The kingdom of heaven is worth everything.

These strong images are used to demonstrate value. The value of God's kingdom, that is, the value of being in relationship with God, following Jesus, and the eternal life promised us in heaven is the very highest value that is possible to conceive. There is no material thing worth more. Value implies cost. Our Lord invites us in the Gospel to consider not only the value of the gift, but also to consider what we are willing to give. Note that Jesus does not tell us that we must sell everything – there is no absolute requirement that we follow the lead of the merchant or the treasure hunter. Indeed, in the list of saints of the Church we will find beggars and royalty side by side, both rich and poor alike. Yet when we speak of the saints, we will speak of those who gave everything for the sake of Jesus Christ. We begin to see that there is no price tag on discipleship, yet relationship with God here on earth and in the eternity for which we hope is of the highest value, truly priceless.

It's worth everything. If this is true, and I firmly believe that it is, then I must ask myself daily if I am willing to give everything. Some days, fortunately, there is no question of what I am willing to give. But other days, I cannot make the same claim. Fortunately, my willingness to give, or the amount of myself I am willing to commit to the kingdom does not diminish the value of the kingdom of heaven. Rather, the more I give of myself, the more I hold fast to the claim that the kingdom of God, relationship with God, the heaven for which I hope, is truly worth everything, the more I see and understand the value, the more I appreciate the gift that Jesus has given when he invites us to enter the kingdom of heaven, to come and follow and to be his disciples.

Peace,

Fr. Sam

ST. PIUS X PARISH SCHOLA

We are now in the process of looking for singers, high school and older, to join our newly formed Choral Schola. Beginning in the fall, the Choral Schola will lead the liturgical music at the 11:00AM Sunday Mass as well as various Holy Days throughout the year. The Schola will be made up of volunteers and professionals who are committed to assist the congregation in singing the Mass and offering special music to help elevate the liturgy.

When singing during the celebration of the Mass, we are reminded of the saying "one who sings prays twice." The Schola's purpose is to enhance the liturgy in a manner that promotes participation by all with joy and reverence.

We hope that you will consider using your voice for this important ministry as we are growing as a parish community. Some prior music experience would be helpful but is not necessary. Training will be provided. Rehearsals will be scheduled at everyone's convenience, but some commitment will be expected.

Please feel free to contact Michael Lantowski via e-mail at mikestro@ymail.com, call 203-255-6134, ext. 119 or come see me after any Mass to inquire.

ST. PIUS X YOUTH CHOIR SEPTEMBER 2023!

St. Pius X will be reestablishing our parish Youth Choir for those in grades 2-7, beginning in September under the direction of Cidalia Kettles and accompanied by Michael Lantowski, our Director of Music. The choir will sing at the 9AM Mass on the last Sunday of each month, beginning in September and ending in May. Rehearsals will be held on Thursdays from 4:30-5:30PM. If you are interested in joining but this time does not work, please reach out.

Cidalia Kettles is our head cantor and a CT certified music educator working in the Fairfield Public School District. She is also well known in the area as a versatile soloist singing in many different churches, venues, concert halls and backing up world class singer Josh Groban on several occasions. We are very blessed to have her as a part of our music ministry team and look forward to getting our youth involved in further participation at Mass. You may reach out to Mrs. Kettles at cidmezzo@gmail.com or our Director of Music, Michael Lantowski at mikestro@ymail.com. Feel free to reach out to us at the office as well, 203-255-6134 ext. 119.
