Mk 6:1-6

Here at St. Pius X parish, at the end of each Mass we chant a Marian hymn. I have been asked by many after Masses, "What is that hymn? What language is that?" They are Marian antiphons, and we chant them in Latin, the language of the Church.

These are ancient and beautiful prayers directed toward the Blessed Virgin Mary.

There are four different hymns that pertain to the different liturgical seasons. The four great seasonal Marian antiphons come from the Divine Office, office of Compline, otherwise known as "Night Prayer." These are the last prayers of the day, and at the close of Compline one of the four seasonal Marian prayers are sung.

From the First Sunday of Advent until the Feast of the Presentation (February 2), we chant Alma Redemptoris Mater

From February 2nd through the Easter Vigil, we chant Ave Regina Caelorum

From the Easter Vigil through Pentecost Sunday, we chant Regina Caeli

During the rest of the year, consisting of those Sundays of Ordinary Time from Pentecost until the first Sunday of Advent, we chant the Salve Regina. This is the most well-known of the Marian antiphons, as a spoken prayer it has been added to the conclusion of the rosary.

I hope for all of us to become intimately familiar with each of these ancient prayers. Having the text and translation of this beautiful hymn will increase our familiarity with it, and hopefully encourage us to recite this prayer dutifully and well!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Brendan

ST. AUGUSTINE ZHAO RONG & COMPANIONS, PRAY FOR US!
FEAST DAY, JULY 9

Zhao Rong was a Chinese soldier tasked with transporting French Bishop John Gabriel Taurin Dufresse to Beijing for his execution. During the long journey, the bishop greatly impressed Zhao Rong with his kindness and peaceful demeanor in the face of persecution. Zhao Rong requested and received baptism after learning about the Catholic faith. Taking the name Augustine, he was later ordained a priest.

During one of the waves of persecution against Christians, Fr. Augustine was arrested. He refused to renounce the Catholic faith and after horrific tortures, Fr. Augustine died of his injuries in prison. Many other Christians were also martyred in China during this time and are honored along with St. Augustine on July 9th.
