Jn 6:24-35

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we continue on in John 6, I'd like to encourage you again to read through this chapter of John's gospel. Following the multiplication of the loaves and fish, and feeding the 5,000, the crowds around Jesus only grow, and he is being sought after all the more. The crowds followed Christ to Capernaum where he begins to teach them the deeper meaning of that miracle. In this exchange the people seek a sign akin to that of the manna given in the desert to the Israelites as they sojourned through the desert to the Promised Land. And while that manna did come down to them from heaven, it only filled their bellies and nourished their body. Christ is revealing to them the greater revelation from God that he wishes to give us the gift of himself as the Bread of Life that nourishes the soul.

Jesus gives mention that the "Son of Man" will provide this food for eternal life, and it is upon him that "God has set his seal." "Son of Man" is another name or title of Jesus, and this understanding of "God's seal" is quite important, for all of us have experienced it. It is a symbol very close to that of anointing, indicating a permanent effect. The indelible "mark" or "character" that the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders leave on the recipient is called a "seal". Who knows what a soul would physically look like, but we know that those who have been sealed with an indelible mark will be different than those who have not. The seal of the Holy Spirit marks us for Christ, as belonging to to him, being strengthened by him, and being committed to his service. Perhaps not the most beautiful analogy, but we the baptized have had our souls branded with the indelible mark of Christ. We are his, the sheep of his flock.

Jesus urges the people to not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life. It is a parallel message we hear elsewhere in the Gospels; we do not fear that which kills the body, but that which kills the soul. The fact of our existence is that we are made up of both a body and a soul. We are not entirely one or the other, we are both. Even Aristotle understood this and described it as hylomorphism. Without getting too bogged down in Aristotelian metaphysics, we are made up of body and soul, and it is the fall of Adam and Eve, that original sin that has put them at odds with each other. We are so frequently tempted in the body toward activities or objects that are unhealthy for our soul. That disunity is meant to be overcome through Christ who has come to save us from our sin. He alone feeds body and soul, as he reveals himself as the bread come down from heaven. He is the Bread of Life. With what else would we rather be nourished?

This Gospel scene ends with Jesus declaring himself as the Bread of Life. We will see the response from the crowds. This becomes a point of demarcation for those who accept this message and those who deny it. The rift exists to this day. Praise God for every opportunity we have to worship, adore, and receive the Bread of Life.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Brendan

We are Hungry for Jesus

The people in today's Gospel reading followed Jesus because He had given them bread. He told them that what they really needed was not just ordinary food, but the food that God would give them. And that was Jesus Himself, the Bread of Life!

Have you ever been hungry? You know you need food and you want to eat. But did you know that your soul can be hungry too? The food for our souls is Jesus. We receive Him in Holy Communion. Just like our bodies need food to stay alive, our souls need God.

All your life there are things you want that you think will make you happy. Have you ever gotten something that you really wanted? It probably made you really happy for a while. But we can only be really satisfied if we have God living in us.

Answer to the front page: Manna and quail. believe, sign, Jesus, Father, bread, world, bread, life, we, God.

Saint Jean Marie Vianney August 4

JEAN MARIE VIANNEY WAS BORN IN 1786 IN FRANCE. WHEN HE WAS YOUNG HE LOOKED AFTER HIS FATHER'S SHEEP. HE LOVED TO PRAY OFTEN.

WHEN HE WAS 20 HE BEGAN HIS STUDIES TO BECOME A PRIEST, BUT HE HAD A HARD TIME LEARNING.

AT HIS FINAL EXAM HE WAS SO UPSET HE CRIED IN FRONT OF THE TEACHERS.

I don't have time for Mass. JEAN WAS ORDAINED AND SENT TO ARS, WHERE MOST PEOPLE DIDN'T GO TO MASS.

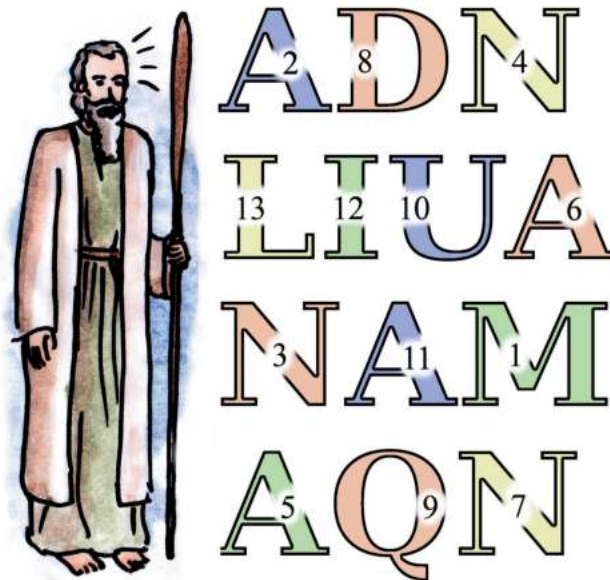

FATHER JEAN PRAYED AND SACRIFICED FOR HIS PEOPLE TO CHANGE.

GRADUALLY THE PEOPLE CAME BACK TO CHURCH, STOPPED SWEARING AND STOPPED WORKING ON SUNDAY.

Bless me, Father... I haven't confessed in 40 years...

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE BEGAN COMING FROM EVERYWHERE TO GO TO CONFESSION TO FR. JEAN. HE HELPED MANY TO COME BACK TO GOD. HE WORKED IN ARS FOR 42 YEARS.

SAINT JEAN MARIE VIANNEY OFTEN SPENT 16 HOURS A DAY HEARING CONFESSIONS. THINK OF HOW MANY PEOPLE HE HELPED COME BACK TO GOD, EVEN THOUGH HE WAS NOT VERY GOOD IN SCHOOL. IS THERE SOMETHING YOU FIND HARD TO DO? DON'T LET IT STOP YOU FROM BRINGING PEOPLE TO GOD!
