Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

What do we picture in our mind when we think of heaven? Clouds, angels with their harps, immense light, the saints, our loved ones, God himself. It is hard to literally imagine a place in our minds when that place is outside of space and time. An image used throughout Church history to describe heaven is that it will be the "wedding feast of the Lamb." This is rich in theological imagery as Christ is both the bridegroom coming to bring his Bride (the Church) to himself, and the Lamb of God who by offering himself takes away the sins of the world. Yet at the heart of this image is a feast, a banquet. If we think that weddings are a fun affair here on this side of eternity, I can assure you that heavenly banquet is going to be a good time, to say the least.

To further this image, we read in Proverbs all about how wisdom is likened to a banquet that gives joy and happiness. Wisdom invites a person to a metaphorical banquet in which those who receive her wisdom consume and assimilate it. They take wisdom into themselves. There is then the clear imagery of bread and wine that represent the food of wisdom that prefigures the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, who is the incarnate Wisdom of God.

This is such an important dimension of how we view the person of Christ. He cannot remain just an historical figure who gave us inspiring words, he is alive. And not only is he alive, but he doesn't wish to be distant from us. Christ does not simply invite us into a relationship with him but wishes to give us his very self for our food. That is a reality much deeper and more intimate than following him as a spiritual leader.

And the crowds hear Jesus preach this message to them. Many are taken aback for they hear these words as an invitation to cannibalism. Christ meant what he said about eating his Flesh and drinking his Blood but in a sacramental way. In the Eucharist, which he would institute at the Last Supper, bread and wine would be changes into his Body and Blood for the spiritual nourishment of the faithful. It was the same evening where he instituted the priesthood, empowering his Apostles and their successors to do the same.

The life that the Eucharist imparts pertains to supernatural life, which binds us ever closer to Christ and actually prepares us for eternity in Heaven. We have the Eucharist as our foretaste of heaven. This spiritual nourishment that is meant to fill our souls with the love and joy of God, that is a glimpse of the eternal perfection and fulfillment that awaits those who love the Lord, particularly in the Eucharist. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass sustains the faithful in this life, but it is also our practice for heaven. Reflect on that reality the next time we ever feel tempted away from this sacrament. The Eucharist is meant to be the source and summit of our faith, and it is our precursor for the life of the world to come.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Brendan

We Thank Jesus for Coming to Us

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells the people that He really will give Himself to them as food to eat. We receive Jesus every time we go to Holy Communion.

One of the words we use for Holy Communion is EUCHARIST, which means thanksgiving.

THANK YOU,
JESUS, FOR COMING TO ME
IN HOLY COMMUNION!

It tells us that the Mass is the best way of giving thanks to God. It also reminds us that we should be very thankful to Jesus for coming to us and giving Himself to us.

We should thank Jesus as soon as we have received Holy Communion. But don't stop being thankful as soon as Mass is over! Being a good Christian means being thankful and trying to please God all the time!

HOW CAN I
SHOW JESUS
I LOVE HIM
TODAY?

Answer to St. Paul Word-Find:
Give thanks always

Try to find all the words in CAPITALS from today's reading. Use the leftover letters to fill in the blanks at the end to find an important part of being a Christian.

BROTHERS and SISTERS: WATCH carefully how you LIVE, not as FOOLISH persons, but with WISDOM, making the most of the opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not continue in IGNORANCE, but try to UNDERSTAND the WILL of the LORD. And do not get drunk on wine, in which lies debauchery, but be FILLED with the SPIRIT, addressing one another in psalms and HYMNS and spiritual SONGS, singing and playing to the Lord in your HEARTS, GIVING THANKS always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to GOD the FATHER.

ST. HELENA PRAY FOR US! FEAST DAY, AUGUST 18

Jesus told the people that He is the Bread of Life and that He would give Himself to them as food.

Connect the dots to see how He gives Himself to us today.

IMPORTANT, PLEASE READ:
A Letter from Fr. Brendan Re: Construction Loan

Dear St. Pius X Parishioners and Friends,

Within the past couple of weeks, you have either received an email from me or heard me speak after Mass with an update on our outstanding 750K Construction Loan.

I have expressed my deep thanks for what we, as a parish family, have been able to raise within a short 2.5-month period since we launched our email/letter outreach campaign.

In addition to your generous donations, our Knights of Columbus debuted our First Annual St. Pius X Golf Tournament in June, resulting in a 27K donation to the Construction Loan. Our Knights also launched our first ever Luxury Car Raffle and have been working tirelessly to sell it out before the drawing in September – proceeds will go toward the Construction Loan. We are grateful for their dedication and hard work. You can still buy tickets for the Luxury Car Raffle on the St. Pius X Website at www.st-pius.org.

At the same time, our Finance Council has been working closely with us and multiple local banks to see how we can refinance the outstanding debt when it matures in November. Until then, we are committed to doing everything we can to raise the funds to pay down this debt. As you have heard me say before, I firmly believe that together, and with the Holy Spirit, we will do just that.

Current Construction Loan Gifts Update as of August 12, 2024:

(From the email/letter outreach)

- Number of Gifts Received: $78,757
- Total Amount of Gifts Received: 152

Again, to all of you who have donated so generously, thank you. And for those who may not have donated yet, may I ask for your prayerful consideration to do so. Any gift, no matter the amount, will make a difference to ensure the future of St. Pius X for your families and future generations.

In Christ,

Fr. Brendan
